

CROATIA AS A CROLLYWOOD? WHY NOT!

Meeting G2 is a proud partner of the international conference “Diaspora and Homeland” which is taking place these days (today and tomorrow, June 10-11) in Marija Bistrica. Our Association is organizing an attractive panel with a strong ambition to promote Croatia as a perfect destination for filming, but we also want to open a discussion about potential investments of diaspora into a Croatian movie industry.

Our distinguished panelists:

- 1) Jennifer Kerum – from “Tony’s Food Service” – the best catering service in Hollywood, which her father Toni Kerum is running for 40 years
- 2) Ksenija Abramović – the owner and editor-in-chief of Laudato TV
- 3) Christopher Peter Marcich – CEO of Croatian audiovisual center (HAVC)
- 4) Joško Lokas, tv-host, producer and the author of the awarded tv-series “Missing”

As an introduction to a topic which will be moderated by the president of MG2 Antun Krešimir Buterin, please enjoy this breathtaking video which shows some of the best movies and tv-series filmed in Croatia in the last 8-10 years: <https://youtu.be/iqQV5MuZfwQ>

MG2 panel on Crolleywood is scheduled for Friday, June 11 (11:45 am - 12:45 pm). Just like the whole Conference, panel can also be watched online and free of charge – via an Online TV Croatia Facebook page.

JOIN THE CONFERENCE “DIASPORA AND A HOMETLAND”

A 2-day international conference “Diaspora and a Homeland” (June 10-11) organized by a Croatian Diaspora Research Center started today in the heart Hrvatsko zagorje. This event is actually a sequel of the 4th Croatian Diaspora Congress whose program – due to pandemic – wasn’t finished last year in Zagreb. Congress is now continuing in Marija Bistrica, with around 100 participants from Croatia and abroad.

They will talk and discuss lot of topics interesting for diaspora – including demography, voting, business cooperation, creative industries, possible investments, language, identity and humanitarian activities after the earthquakes. A whole Conference program can be found here: <https://www.centar-za-iseljenistvo.hr/pocetna-stranica>

Due to pandemic, Conference will be held as a hybrid event – both live in Hotel Kaj in Marija Bistrica, but also virtually (online). Full access is free of charge, and possible via the first Croatian live streaming TV Online Live TV Croatia:
